Wednesday 12th February

Dear Parents and Guardians,

On Tuesday 8th April, Y4 will be having a very exciting Egyptian workshop company in school all day!

The focus of the day is on being an archeologist and Egyptologist using Howard Carter's amazing discovery of the tomb of the Pharaoh Tutankhamun. We will explore the country of Egypt and the River Nile and learn about Egyptian Gods. We will also investigate the mummification process and the curse of the pharaohs.

The children are invited to dress up as an Egyptian on this day. Please do not feel that these costumes need to be expensive. There are lots of ideas on the internet for how to dress up as an Egyptian using a simple bedsheet and cardboard.

The cost of the workshop is being covered by the school as it is taking place on site.

Kind Regards
Mrs Keay
