Dear Parents and Guardians,

On 12th June, Y4 will be having a very exciting Egyptian workshop company in school all day!

The focus of the day is on being an archeologist and Egyptologist using Howard Carter's amazing discovery of the tomb of the Pharaoh Tutankhamun. We will explore the country of Egypt and the River Nile and learn about Egyptian Gods. We will also investigate the mummification process and the curse of the pharaohs.

The children are invited to dress up as an Egyptian on this day. Please do not feel that these costumes need to be expensive. There are lots of ideas on the internet for how to dress up as an Egyptian using a simple bedsheet and cardboard.

The cost of the workshop is £8.50 and can be made via Parent Pay by 7th June.. Please note that if we don't receive enough contributions towards the workshop, we reserve the right to cancel the event.

During the morning of 12th June, Parents are invited to take part in our Egyptian workshop for our annual 'Watch me Learn day!' (please see separate letter for more information).

Kind Regards
Mrs Belfield
